Microsoft Lizenz-Pro (MLP)

This training will teach you the required knowledge to help you get familiar with Microsoft licensing. The training will be held in German.

Description

Learning Objectives

You will gain in-depth insight into Microsoft's various licensing models and contract types. You will get to know the various products and related licensing options; as you will find out, there is not one single correct type of licensing. (duration 2 days)

In addition to this training we recommend that you book the separate trainings "Matrix42 Software Asset Management – License Management Foundation" and "Matrix42 Software Asset Management Basics".
